NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

I, _____, in consideration of being employed or engaged by the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct and in consideration of my receiving information, including information designated for protection from unauthorized disclosure by the Director of Central Intelligence (hereinafter designated CIA material), make the representations and accept the obligations set forth below as conditions of my employment or engagement and of my receiving such information.

I am familiar with the provisions of the laws relating to the unauthorized disclosure of certain national defense information. (18 United States Code 793, 794, and 798). I have read section 102(d)(3) of the National Security Act of 1947 as amended (50 United States Code 403(d)(3)) which specifically places a responsibility on the Director of Central Intelligence to protect intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure. I am also familiar with Executive Order 11652 relating to the protection of classified information.

It is my understanding that in the course of my employment or engagement I will be given access to information which is classified for national security reasons in accordance with standards set forth in statute or executive order. All documents containing such information acquired by me in the course of my employment or engagement remain the property of the United States. I agree to surrender upon demand by the Chairman of the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct or upon separation from my employment or engagement any such documents which have come into my possession as a result of my relationship.

I agree that I will never divulge, publish, or reveal in any way any ~~classified information~~ ^{CIA material} to any unauthorized person without prior written authorization of the Chairman of the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, who will rule on requests for authority to make disclosures after consultation with the Director of Central Intelligence, subject to the provisions of paragraph eight of the Memorandum of Understanding between the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct and the Director of Central Intelligence.

I hereby assign to the United States Government all rights, title and interest in any and all royalties, remunerations, and emoluments that have resulted or will result or may result from any such divulgence, publication or revelation of information prohibited from disclosure under the terms of this agreement.

I recognize that the Director of Central Intelligence by statute is responsible for the protection of intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure. Unless released in writing from this agreement or any portion thereof by the Director of Central Intelligence, I recognize that all the conditions and obligations imposed on me by this agreement with respect to the protection of ~~classified information~~ ^{CIA material} and sensitive compartmented information apply during my employment by the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct and continue to apply after that relationship has terminated. These obligations may be enforced by appropriate legal proceedings, including an application for an appropriate order prohibiting disclosure, either by the Chairman, on behalf of the Committee, or by the Director of Central Intelligence.

I make this agreement without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion.
